This new book aims to help teachers develop approaches to teaching and learning that take into account individual students' needs and abilities to best facilitate learning. Taking a fresh approach, it offers a wide range of techniques for planning lessons that allow them to use current resources (including themselves) in a more innovative way to produce outstanding results.
Making a Difference Colleges: Distinctive Colleges to Make a Better World

At no time since its initial publication in 1992 has Making A Difference College Guide ever been more timely and relevant. Today's students increasingly seek ways to influence world events and to shape the world anew. Making A Difference enables prospective college and graduate students to easily find the best colleges and programs to help them make a better world. The author researched hard-to-find, unique as well as prestigious colleges where peace, the environment, social responsibility and se...
